Lyrics

I got a thrill when a baby,
I sat upon Mother’s Knee;
I got a thrill when Teacher Lady,
commended my Geography;
I feel a thrill when we’re dancing
And hear your heart beating true;
But still the thrill that’s most entrancing,
is the thrill, dear, of kissing you on mother's knee, I got a thrill when teacher lady, commended my geography

I feel a thrill when we're dancing and hear your heart beating true. But still the thrill that's most entrancing is the thrill, dear, of kissing you.

Flute

I got a thrill when a baby,
I sat up on mother's knee;
I got a thrill when teacher said,
Commended my geography.

I feel a thrill when we're dancing
And hear your heart beating true,
But still the thrill that's most entrancing
Is the thrill dear of kissing you.
