You spend your money, On some sweet honey You have a wonderful time.

Your heart is captured She is en-rap-tured, Un-til you haven't a dime.

Then by the dozens, she needs her cousins, Always a new al-i-bi.

You are so weary Life is so drear-y.

You're through with that kind you must be cheer-y, Then with the new one,

Apple Sauce
Comes back the old fun, you won't be sad any more,

But some fine morning, it will be dawning, this is the same as before,

And as you wonder, you sit and ponder

Of your gain and loss, the answer will come the total sum is "Apple Sauce."
