just a kid, A bare-foot, freckled kid, You always were my beau, You'd hang a-round my gate un-til you'd get home late

And then you'd find your dad was wait-ing out in the wood-shed,

How I sigh for dear old days gone by I can't for-get those things you did

Do you re-mem-ber now Do you still re-call the vow that we made when you were just a kid? When you were kid?

P-f just a kid,— A bare-foot, freckled kid,— You always were my beau,— You'd hang a-round my gate — until you'd get home late — And then you'd find your dad was waiting out in the woodshed, How I sigh — for dear old days gone by — I can't forget those things you did — Do you remember now — Do you still reall the vow — that we made when you were just a kid? — When you were kid?
