My Heart's Tonight In Loveland
Where I First Met You.

By EUGENE ELLSWORTH.

Author of
"CHANT OF THE DREAMLAND CHOIR."

Slow waltz tempo.

I want you so you'll never know,
In the dear past too sweet to last,

How my heart longs for you dear
We lived for each other only while you're away, Missing your sweet smile so cheer

you went away, Since then my life has been lonely

Copyright, 1911, by Eugene Ellsworth
Pub. by Eugene Ellsworth, 145 N. Clark St. Chicago, III.
Wonder if you, are longing too,
Longing for sadness and tears, fill all my years,
Since we have loved land and me,
I ask the red rose, that drifted apart,
And if for love's sake, my poor heart should break
Would you care then, sweetheart?

REFRAIN. Valse lento.

My hearts to-night in love-land,
Where the skies are blue
My heart's to-night in love-land, Is yours there too? In all my dreams of love-land, Your cresc.

fair face thrills me through, My heart's to-night in dear love-
cresc.

land, Where I first met you. My you.
My Heart's Tonight in Loveland
Where I First Met You

EUGENE ELLSWORTH

Tenor I
Tenor II (lead)
Bar
Bass

My heart's tonight in love-land, Where the skies are blue.
(From love-land)

My heart's tonight in love-land, Is yours (So blue)
(From love-land)

Tell me dearie In all my dreams of love-land, Your (Thrills me through)

Fair face thrills me through My heart's tonight in (Thrills me through)

dear love-land, Where I first met you.
(First met you)

Cresc.