Come And Kiss Your Little Baby.

Words by
LEW BROWN

Music by
ALBERT VON TILZER

Moderato

Honey can't you see the moon is shining Honey I could live on hugs and kisses

Shining so you have no one to May be you could live on loving

Fear, too,
You say that this spot is kind of lonesome

Well
If I thought your ma would not be angry

that's the reason why I brought you here.
I would try and run away with you.

Night time is the right time for some loving You know I have had a lot of sweethearts let us sit beneath those shady trees

Now I'll let you in a little bashful I'd try to steal a little hug and squeeze.

CHORUS (Not fast)

Come and kiss your little baby,
one, two, three, four,

Come on I want some more,
Come and squeeze your little baby, that's right, hold tight, meet me here tomorrow night,

Come and love your little baby,
True love is divine Oh dear, oh dear,

won't you cuddle near
No dear, no dear,

don't you leave me here Come and kiss your baby all of the time.
