PROFESSIONAL COPY.

Warning! Floating Down The River On The Alabam'.

Words by LEW BROWN.

Music by ALBERT VON TILZER.

Moderat Marcia.

I feel so sad, Oh! no I'm glad, Because I hear, What's that I hear, I heard the

Copyright 1912 by Albert Von Tilzer 1482 Broadway New York City

International CopyrightSecured Copyright Assigned MCMXIII to the Broadway Music Corporation 145West 45th St., N.Y.

All rights reserved to use this work upon the parts of instruments serving to reproduce it mechanically.
got a note in which my baby wrote, She's waiting there, see,

captain say, we're not so far away, From Tennessee.

She's waiting there, see,

from Tennessee,

way The

down in Tennessee, that's where I ought to be, I'll have to go,

place that I adore, there's people on the shore they're waving hands,

I'll have to go,

just hear those bands,

If I decide to stay, that my heart is in my throat, I'm

Floating Down The River etc. 4
gal might move away, So I think I'll take the boat for home
rocking like the boat, Tennessee looks mighty good to me today I'm on my way, Just hear those today And there I'll stay, Don't ask the whistles blow, Good-bye I've got to go.

reason why, I'm so glad I could cry.

CHORUS.

Floating along, Floating along, Floating down the river on the

Floating Down The River etc. 4
Al-a-bam, Singing a song, Singing a song, 'Cause I'm feeling so much better Since I got your loving letter Don't stop that boat, Don't stop that boat, you don't know what my baby wrote, Oh! my honey lamb, Stay where you am I'm floating home to you upon the Al-a-bam.