KEEP AWAY FROM THE FELLOW WHO OWNS AN AUTOMOBILE

Wayne Riske

By IRVING BERLIN

There's a certain Mary White went flirtin' man with money in the bank, The out one night in Harry's new machine, They man I mean, owns a machine, the kind you have to rode quite far, when Harry's car ran out of gas-crank; His great delight, is to invite a line; The hour was late, and sad to state no

girlie for a whirl; In his machine and gas could Harry get; The latest word I,

I just mean to kind o' warn each girl!
overheard, was that they're walking yet!
CHORUS

Keep away from the fellow who owns an automobile,
He'll take you far in his motor car,
Too darn far from your Pa and Ma, If his forty horsepower goes sixty miles an hour;... say Good-bye... for...
-ev-er, good-bye for-ev-er, There's no chance to talk, squawk or balk, You must kiss him or get out and walk; Keep a-way from the fell-low who owns an au-to-mo-bile. Keep a-bile.

Keep Away, etc. 4
