"Let's Go To Savannah G. A."

Words by L. WOLFE GILBERT.

Music by LEWIS F. MUR and MAURICE ABRAHAMS

Moderato.

Ever-y day's a hol-i-day ever-y bo-dy must be gay Snow-ball Jack-son and his bride Liz-a Jane is by his side

Nev-er work it's al-ways play, hoor-ay Hap py hap py are they,
In this place they both re-side And soon they'll spend their sweet hon-ey moon,

it's just one great big round of pleasure,
But never leave this round of pleasure
If you're Al-a-

night comes round,
Mister Moon starts shining down
Then the darkies

bam - a bound,
Stop once in this Georgia town
Bet you'll love the
