Way Down On The Mississippi

Words by ARTHUR G. SCHNADT.

Music by HERBERT BINNER.

Moderato Andante.

Very slow.

Way down on the Miss-iss-ip-pi in a
On the dear old Miss-iss-ip-pi where our lit-tle vil-lage there That is where I met my first love sweetheart, fair; life was one sweet dream In the twi-light we would wander to the stream In the eyes so full of laugh-ter, flow-ing waves of gold-en hair Not a dis-tance o'er the mead-ows, we could hear the dark-ies sing And in

Copyright MCMXII by Betts & Binner Co. Chicago.

British Copyright Secured.
sweet-er lit-tle girl lived an- y- where, Looking back now we re-mem-ber how in har-mon-y we'd hear their ban-jos ring, We would wait to watch the steamboats As they hap- py days of yore As two lov- ers we would drift a-long the came a-round the bend, It was there our hap-py mo-ments we would shore, We could hear the steam-boat's whis-tle Down the spend, When we heard the steam-boat's whis-tle And we riv-er, far a-way In the shadows of the moonlight we would stay.

saw it's shin-ing light Then we knew that it was time to say "Good - night?"
REFRAIN.
(Slow with expression.)
Way down on the Miss-iss-ip-pi where the bal-my breezes blow, There's a

p-mf

dear old hum-bly cot-tage Where I oft-en used to go, There's a sirv'-ry haired old sweet-heart Whos dear face with pleas-ure glows When we

mf  rit   p

hear the steamboat's whis-tle, Where the Miss-iss-ip-pi flows.

dolce e lento

very slow

Way Down 'on the M. 4
Way Down On The Mississippi

Chorus for Male or Mixed Voices.  HERBERT BINNER.
Arr. by Jean Waltz.

Melody in 2d Tenor or Soprano.

TENOR.I
(Male Quartette only.)
Way down on the Miss-iss-ip-pi where the bal-my breezes blow There's a dear old hum-ble cot-tage where I oft-en used to go There's a

TENOR.II
SOPR
Way down on the Miss-iss-ip-pi where the bal-my breezes blow There's a
dear old hum-ble cot-tage where I oft-en used to go There's a

ALTO

BARITONE

BASS.

silv-ry haired old sweetheart Whose dear face with pleasure glows When we silv-ry haired old sweetheart Whose dear face with pleasure glows When we hear the steam-boat whistle Where the Miss-iss-ip-pi flows.

hear the steam-boat whistle Where the Miss-iss-ip-pi flows.