Come Along To The Masquerade.

Written & Composed by RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

Allegro con moto.

Hark! Hark! Hark! Hark! Hark! hear the music playing!
Hon! Hon! Hon! Hon! there'll be lots to see there;

Great big dance to-night; Great big prance to-night; Look! Look! Look! Look!
Lots of funny folks, Jokes and minstrel mokes; Come! Come! Come! Come!

see the people straying; Hear that eight o'clock bell! (Ding, dong, ding!)
Kings and Queens 'll be there; Five Napoleons, too; (Just count 'em)

Run! Run! Run! Run! or you'll miss the racket;
My! My! My! My! look at Humpty Dumpety;

Over at the hall; Over at the ball;
See those funny tramps; See those funny scamps;

Now's the time to show your fancy clothes;
When the masks come off at twelve o'clock;

Show your fancy pose; Show your fancy hose;
I don't want to knock; I don't want to mock;
While you do the "turkey" on your toes, At the
