PROFESSIONAL COPY.

Warning! This Copy is intended for the use of PROFESSIONAL SINGERS ONLY, and any one found selling or exposing it for sale is liable to a fine or imprisonment, or both, and will be prosecuted under the Copyright Law by THE PUBLISHERS.

If You Should Ever Leave Me.

Words by E. S. Wheaton. Music by W. M. Dygert.

Moderato.

You know I have loved you ev er, My heart has been but If you should ev er leave me, The thought near drives me

thine mad No thing on earth could sev er, Af
My life would all be dark ness, All

Copyright MCMXIII by W. M. Dygert.

British Copyright Secured.

Copyright Transferred to Buck & Lowney, St. Louis, Mo.
If you should ever leave me, My heart would be broken

Not Death could bring me back, Would bloom alas in vain
My heart would burst in crimson

Alas! life's joy would seem but pain;

REFRAIN.

If you should ever leave me, The Sun would cease to shine

If I should etc 3.
shine— No other loss would grieve me While I could call you Mine— The light would turn to darkness, The joy would turn to woe:— If you should ever leave me, Because I love you so. — If so.

If I should etc. 3.