In The Golden West.

Marcia.

By BAYHA & COWAN.

I just was dreaming,
I can't help raving,

I just was dreaming,
I thought I saw that old stage

coach a-swinging down the mountain side;
on that ranch, I know he's waiting for me;

On that bumpy thump-y rock-y ride,
And he's wonder-ing where I can be.
That's why I'm screaming,
Sav-ing,
That's why I'm sav-ing,
Each penny that I thought that it was bring-ing me to the farm,
To the farm, where my
got to buy a tick- et then I'm go-ing some,
'cause they
Pa and Marm,
wrote to come,
Pray that I'm safe from harm, Gosh darn!
Out where they make things hum, By gum!
CHORUS.
