Sun-day night in our town's like
On the great Atlantic, the Sun-day night in yours,

Nothing to do on the
waves were rolling high,
Terrible thunder and outside, and nothing to do indoors;

They
lightening and torrents from out the sky;

Even shut the movies as soon as it gets dark.

One

Good ship "Helen Blazes" had just gone on the rocks,

But

Chase the couples in off the stoops and then they lock the park,

Half the passengers lost their lives the first man lost his socks,

And

There's one place if you can find your way.

"Men," the captain cried, "It's up to you."

And

Just as soon as the drug store shuts, you'll hear somebody say:

Then the second assistant cook said "I know what we'll do!"

Let's All Go, etc.
Let's all go a-round to Mary Ann's. And tickle a tune up-on the Piano, etc.

There's something nice always on the ice, And you don't have to ask her twice for a drink of Cocoa-Cola

Her front door has never known a lock.

Always standing open and you never have to knock;

Nobody knows what time it is 'cause the hands are off the clock, So you never go home until morning around at Mary Ann's

Ann's.
