A Little Bunch Of Shamrocks.

Words by William Jerome and Andrew B. Sterling.

Music by Harry Von Tilzer.

Andante moderato.

Piano.

In my hand I hold a little bunch of shamrocks, From that gardens filled with violets and roses, Where the little Isle of green across the sea, They were air is perfumed as the lily blows, But this gathered in the Vale of sweet Avoca,
And my little bunch of sham-rocks I am holding,
Is more sweet-hearted than any flow'r that grows,
When my dear heart sent them over here to me,

They bring me back to Ireland the sunshine bright above,
They're from the dear "old Dart;" I'll bring me back to my land,
I'm with the ones I love,
Always keep them near me, right here around my heart.

A Little Bunch etc. 3
Chorus.
Tenderly.

I can see my own Kil-lar-ney And the dear old lakes so grand, And the

Mag-ic stone of Blar-ney, where I held my sweet-heart's hand, In my dreams there's just one oth-er, I can see my dear old Moth-er,

"Come back to Er-in Ma-vour-nee, Ma-vour-nee", In this lit-tle bunch of Sham-rocks I am hold-ing in my hand.
