cheer-y fire-side, But now their hair has turned to sil-vry gray, It’s know I’ve loved you ev-er since you went to school with me, Since for-ty years a-go to-day that he made her his bride, And bare-foot days, we've been most every-where;

To the lifes December seemed to them like May;
Now the old red mill that stands upon the hill, With the old red mill is not upon the hill, And the old gray horse and shay, to the barn that kept the hay, My
barn that kept the hay years ago was torn away, He
love is just the same,
My heart is just as true,
But
kissed her dear, sweet lips, She said so happily,"It
