gad days of June, With the whole world a-tune, I'd be worth the while, With the joy of your smile, To kiss you again as of old.

CHORUS With much expression

Aft-er the ros-es have fa-ded a-way, Aft-er their splen-dor has gone, Aft-er a night filled with mocking joy, After the silent dawn

After the birds fly away to the south, With their song of a summer's day, Whenever you are, You're my guiding star, When the roses have faded away.
