BABY LOVE.

Words by Geo. Whiting and Paul Cunningham.

Music by Harry Von Tilzer.

Piano.

My sister Flo has a sweetheart, First she ever had,
Ma went away for the summer, Cause her health was bad, He's got a pet name he calls her It makes her feel Dad took her down to the station Gee, but he felt let me be your oatsey, wootsey, turtle dove Then I took one great big lingering kiss heard him give one lingering kiss

And then another I thought they'd smother
And then another I thought of Mother She just giggled maybe, love, Then I He just giggled maybe, love, Then I heard my Father calling from above, laughed and sister gave me such a shove,

Go get my breakfast Flo right away, Ask that young man of yours Just then my mamma came in the door Dad dropped the telephone

if he'll stay with his babe, babe, babe, babe, beautiful baby on the floor with it's
