Johnnie On The Spot.

Words by Vincent Bryan. Music by Harry Von Tilzer.
Moderato.

Piano.

Who is that lovin' Boy? Why did they love him so? That's a dancing o-ver there? Girl-ies all sigh for joy, rea-son why.

Why is that lovin' Boy? Why did they love him so? John-nie knew the Ev'-ry-where he would go, Ev'-ry-where he would go,

When they see that boy anywhere, Now they have found him
Every little girlie would sigh, Give him the ball room

This is their chance, They all surround him beg for a dance,
Johnnie was there, Turn on your moonlight he didn't care,

Every girlie seems to love him a lot, For he is Johnny on the spot.
That is why he got the pick of the lot, For he was Johnny on the spot.

Chorus:
Any time the girlies wanted Johnnie he was there. He was

Johnnie On The Spot. 4
Johnnie on the spot, Any time they even wished for Johnnie he was there, He was there like a shot, All the pretty girlies lost their reason, When he'd squeeze 'em in the lovin' season, Hug and tease 'em All he didn't care—He was there like a bear,

Johnnie On The Spot. 4
If he thought a girlie wanted lovin' he was quick, he was very, very slick. He was there with all that lovery lovin' he would stick and he never lost a trick. If any girlie was lonely or blue, Leave it to Johnnie he knew what to do, Like a shot, like a shot, He was Johnnie on the spot why not.
