Oh! My Love.

Words by JOE M. CARthy

Music by
JAMES V. MONACO

Ev'ry night, yes
Ten o'clock, at

ev'ry night, right across the way from me, ten o'clock, I can see her standing there, Every night, yes, every night, some thing's there that Twelve o'clock at twelve o'clock, she starts taking

I can see, There's a sweet young girl
Down her hair, One A.M. each morning

Who retires early Though I don't mean I stand there a yawning It is almost Any wrong I always sing this song.

Break of day before she hears me say.

Oh! My Love 3
CHORUS

Oh! my love—won't you please pull down the curtain

Oh! my love—can't you see I'm madly flirtin'—oh! my love—won't you please put out that light—I can look at you for an hour or two—but I can't stay up all night—wife is sleepin' if she catches me good—night—
