Oh, lady buck, oh, lady buck, think of my repose.
Oh, lady buck, oh, lady buck, think of what you missed.
Chorus.

Along the Rocky road to Dublin we were swinging along, Singing a song with joy me heart was bubbling with Cordelia by me side, Sure every time I'd look in her rogue eyes of Irish blue, I couldn't help but feel very proud, that I was Irish too. All me thoughts of dear old Dublin seem to carry me back to a rickety shack.

How I'd love to be there once again.

Just like before, shure, only to love Cordelia more again.
