On The Good Ship Whippoorwill

Words by
COLEMAN GOETZ
Moderato

Music by
WALTER DONALDSON

There's a boat 'that' leaves the town,
There's the captain and the crew,
When the golden sun goes down,
I will introduce you to

As she leaves the pier,
Each and every one,
How the crowds all yell and cheer

In Dixie, When the evening breezes blow, know you'll have some fun, Get ready, Hear the funny tunes they play,

Copyright MCMXV by Shapiro, Bernstein & Co. Inc. 224 West 47th Street, New York
International Copyright Secured
All Rights Reserved
That's the time they love to go,
See those couples swing and sway,
I've got seats for two,
That's why I say to you:
lore,
I know you'll shout for more:

CHORUS
Come on bo,
Here we go,
On the good ship Whippoorwill,
When the

whistles blow,
Soft and low,
Then my feet will not keep still,

On The Good Ship Whippoorwill. 3
See those folks, Virginia reel in; While those paddle wheels are wheelin';

I know that you'll be feelin' Great! Mate! You'll want to celebrate,

When you hear those darkies sing,

Soft and low. Come on board! On the good ship Whippoorwill.

On The Good Ship Whippoorwill.