There’s Going
To Be A Wedding Down In Dixie.

Words by JESSE G. M. GLICK.

Music by
F. B. KIRWAN.

Copyright 1915 by Stark Music Co.
good to me
sippi shore

A ticket I'm buying
And I see her standing Beside the flying To some one who is waiting down in landing Where we oft stood together in the days of yore

Messenger boy good messenger boy
Let down that gang plank quickly for me Run like the dickens with this telegraph Cause I know she'll be anxious to try to that old levee There's a girl waiting there who I'm

There's Going 4.
know what I say— So I've sent her an answer that sounds this way.
dying to see I will hold her and whisper so lovingly.

There's going to be a wedding down in Dixie There's going to There's going to be a wedding down in Dixie There's going to be a jubilee (Hurrah) There's going to be some kissing be a jubilee (Hurrah) There's a Rag-time band oh but it's you can bet When that lady mine I see grand its grand In-vite ev-e-ry bo-dy you see

There's Going 4.
Somebody sent a message "I forgive thee", And Somebody sent a message "I forgive thee" Hon.

that's my cue Oh Gee!
So I'm going back to ey I'm happy Gee!
So that's why I'm back to day And never go away There's going to be a day To have a wedding gay There's going to be a wedding down in Dixie There's Dixie

wedding down in Dixie There's Dixie

There's Going 4.