Uncle Sammy Loves the Stars and Stripes

Arranged by
W. SCHWARTZ

Words & Music by
H. A. SHAMBAUGH

Allegro

Dear old Yan-kee land, the home of Un-cle Sam,tis the good old U. S. A. And the
Of all Na-tion's grand, we have the pluck and sand, yet we nev-er boast nor brag, To all first of all to have our Na-tion's call was Wash-ing-ton, they say, we are Na-tion's cease, lib-er-ty and peace, if they in-sult our flag, both the proud to boast from coast to coast of the Red the White and Blue, She's a Blue and Grey are as one to-day and for lib-er-ty will die, From the

Published by H.A. Shambaugh, Dubuque, Iowa.

Copyright MCMXVII by H. A. Shambaugh.

English Copyright Secured
grand old flag, nev-er let her drag, she means all to me, to you,
North and South, from the East and West, you will ev-er hear this cry,

CHORUS

Un-cle Sammy loves the Stars and Stripes emblem of lib-er-ty and e-qual rights

When we see her float-ing none are slow filled with spir-it all a-glow

Of the national flags we have the best best of all because she's stood the test The Goddess of Lib-er-ty, our flag in all its heights, Un-cle Sam-my loves the Stars and Stripes.