ARTIST'S COPY

Blue Hawaii
Waltz Song

Words and Music by ABEL BAER
(Writer of "Hello Alaska")
IRVING CAESAR and IRA SCHUSTER

Valse Moderato

Those golden days of bliss, Those nights I learned to My heart keeps sighing for My own Hawaiian kiss, Still linger in my memory Those palms that hid the shore, My life is filled with golden dreams, I see a smiling light, Those arms that held me tight, For ever keep calling to me.

face, I feel a fond embrace, A treasure each memory seems.

CHORUS (Dreamily):

Dreaming of the blue skies, Bluer than the sea, Blue Hawaii,

Blue Hawaii, I can see two blue eyes Smiling just for me, Blue Hawaii,

By the blue lagoon I used to uke a ukulele tune, To my honey Lu Twas like a Honolulu honeymoon; How my heart is yearning, I'm returning to Blue Hawaii, I'm so blue for you.

Copyright MCMXXIX by LEO. FEIST, Inc., Feist Building, New York, U.S.A.
This Arrangement Copyrighted MCMXXIX by LEO. FEIST, Inc., Feist Building, New York, U.S.A.
International Copyright Secured and Reserved.