A Picture Of Mother

Words by JOS. M. DAVIS and BARTLEY COSTELLO

Music by J. RUSSEL ROBINSON

Andante moderato

Piano

With expression

I've seen the world's greatest pictures,
Sometimes I fancy she's singing,
An old-time new and old;
But I have the master-piece of all,
Set in a frame of gold:
Refrain Tenderly

There's a picture of sunrise at dawn, When the birds sing to wel-come the morn: There's a sun-set of gold, with beau-ty untold, And a pic-ture of cows in the corn; There are pictures that mem-ry holds dear, Of the old friends framed there on the wall;

But there is one oth-er, A pic-ture of Moth-er, It's the pic-ture I love best of all. There's a all.
