PROFESSIONAL COPY
If You Like Me, Like I Like You

Arranged by Dave Kaplan

By L. Wolfe Gilbert

Andante moderato

Piano

(Very Slow)

Voice

A little baby wrote, a little baby's note
A little baby's eyes, have grown to twice their size

To her daddy who had gone away
She sees someone standing by the door She breathes a happy sigh, for taught her how to spell,

So she could write him letters every joy she starts to cry,
And soon she's in her daddy's arms once

Copyright MCMXXI by L. Wolfe Gilbert Music Corp., 1658 Broadway, N.Y.
International Copyright Secured
All Rights Reserved
day more
He could hardly wait until they

After years they both recall the came way

Each message that she sent would read the same
She wrote her daddy letters every day

Refrain
If you like me, like I like you you a tempo slowly

p-mf espressivo

(Optional)
must be lonely too, Mama's sad she

If You Like Me etc.
needs you dad — Your little baby’s blue — My playmates seem to have their daddy, both night and day — They always ask me why you’re away — If you like me, — like I like you — Then you’ll come back some day —

If You Like Me etc. 3