ISLE OF SWEETHEARTS.

L’Étrange Valse.

Words by IRVING CAESAR.

Music by MAURICE YVAIN.

Tempo di Valse.

Piano.

\[ f \]

\[
\text{Tempo di Valse.}
\]

\[ \text{rall.} \]

\[ p \text{ Slow with expression.} \]

Palm trees were always swaying,
Gently each breeze kept saying,
"This is Hawai'i, Where days are as fair as May."

Sunbeams were always brightest,
Hearts always were the

Copyright, MCMXXI, by Francis Salabert.
For the British Empire (except Australia, New Zealand & Canada)
light-est, Life was gay till one day, I sailed away.

REFRAIN.

pp-mf a tempo

Isle of Sweet hearts, My heart is sighing

For your Ha-wai-ian shore. Isle of

Sweet hearts, You hold one that I adore;
Dreamy Love-land,

Soon on a honey-moon I'll return to you.

Isle of Sweet-hearts, Where skies are blue I'm planning a home for two.

Tempo I.

Somehow I feel my place is

There midst Hawaiian faces, Love-land's o-a-sis lies back of that gold-en shore. Just like its sands kept burn-ing, My heart keeps ev-er yearning, Yearning to sail to the girl I adore.

REFRAIN

pp-mf a tempo

Isle of Sweet hearts, My heart is sighing

For your Ha-wai-ian shore. Isle of

Sweet hearts, You hold one that I adore;
Dreamy Love-land,

Soon on a honey-moon I'll re-turn to you,

Isle of Sweet-hearts, Where skies are blue I'm planning a home for two.