Mam - my o' mine, your face div -
What would I give once more to line I see in all of my dreams;

live Back in those sweet by gone days?

Your ten - der smile made life worth while;
Oh, how I miss my Mam - my's kiss!

Brightened my path-way, it seems.
Thoughts of her linger always.

Memory brings back to me a simple tune. I can hear my Mammy dear so softly croon;

Once again this sweet lull-a-b-y

Through the Land of Lullaby Dreams. 3

trees the cool breezes sigh. When the twilight shadows creep, I'd fall asleep. Just to rest on Mammy's breast in slumber deep;

As in days of yore I long once more For the land of lullaby dreams. Mem- o- dreams.

Land of Lullaby Dreams.
