There's Silver In Your Hair
(But There's Gold Within Your Heart)

Words by
WORTON DAVID

Music by
LAWRENCE WRIGHT

Moderato con espressione

Long years of joy we've spent together,
We've heard the voice of Spring-time.

-gether, We've shared the rain and sunny weather;
-ling, We've watch'd the leaves of Au-tumn falling. But tho' the

Copyright 1921 by the Lawrence Wright Music Company
Published by Chappell-Harms, Inc. New York
me your dear eyes shine, As on the day God made you mine.
years have come between, The mem'ry lives of what has been.

REFRAIN (Slowly and with expression)
There's silver in your hair, dear.

roses have faded away: The snows of Dec-

-cember have taken the place Of the beautiful flow'rs of

C-H. 7380-3
May your eyes have lost their brightness,

But the love-light will ne'er depart,

Silver in your snow-white hair, But there's gold within your heart.

There's heart.