Moderato

When you're feeling blue, And have nothing else to do,
Take the jazz express, To the land of happiness,

I will take you where. Music fills the air,
All A--board let's go. Hurry don't be slow,

It's way down in Tinkle Town, Land of Harmony,
Grab your honey by the arm, Come along with me, can't go wrong, just join the throng, And come a - long with me, Gee!

play the Blues, you can't re-fuse, That's full of mel-o-dy, Gee!

CHORUS

Come on down, Come on down, to Tinkle Town,
Come on down, Come on down, to Tinkle Town,

There's a lea-dervman named Eph-rar ham, Jazz-ing all a round
You will see the cou-ples young and old, Say

When he starts to harm-o-niz-ing some Blue Dit-ty, You'll just prance and sway, While the rag-time band is play-ing soft and mel-low. We'll glide nice and slow, And

Come On Down etc. 3
soon we'll see some Strutters stepping pret-ty, then you'll see each Flap-per with her fel-low;
Danc-ing all your cares a-way,
Gliding on to Buf-fa-lo.

"Hey," "Oh"

Take my tip,
Take a trip,
Don't be a clown
So "Hear" "Ye"

Take your gal,
Or your pal,
Don't wear a frown
Just get your

one and all,
We're gon-na Cootie'till the Dew-drops fall, so Stop hes-i-tat-in'cause we'll soon be gone, so

Come on down to Tinkle Town.
to Tinkle Town.

Come On Down etc.
