PROFESSIONAL COPY.

Warning! Any one found selling, or exposing it for sale is liable to a fine or imprisonment, or both, and will be prosecuted under the Copyright law by, The PUBLISHER

Faded Love Letters
(OF MINE)

Lyric by
RICHARD W. PASCOE

Music by
LUELLA LOCKWOOD MOORE and
WILL E. DULMAGE

Copyright MCMXXII by Chas. E. Roat Music Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
English Copyright Secured.
Printed in the U. S. A.
Wond'ring if some-one can see me to-night, As the tears from my eyes gen-tly
One day they took her, and no-bod-y knows, What it meant when we two came to fall. All I have, all I hold, Are just dreams to un-part,
All I have to a-dore, All I have to live fold In each line of those let-ters of old, for
Are love let-ters I read o'er and o'er.

CHORUS

Fad-ed old love let-ters, They mean the world to me, Each night I read them over, They are my rosary, My little Pal I've lost you, But like a star you shine, Tho' your dear hands are still, In my heart there's a

From that old pal of mine.

For those faded love letters of mine.
Faded Love Letters
(OF MINE)

Lyric by RICHARD W. PASCOE
Mixed and Male Quartet Arrangement Music by LUELLA LOCKWOOD MOORE and WILL E. DULMAGE

CHORUS

ALTO

Faded old love letters, They mean the world to me, Each night I read them over, They are my rosary, My little pal I've lost you, But like a star you shine, Tho' your dear hands are still, In my heart there's a thrill, For those faded love letters of mine. I'll keep those mine. From that old pal of mine.

TENOR

(you know)

(world to me,)

(I read them o'er,)

(they're my rosary,)

(star you shine,)

Zimmerman Print
Cincinnati, Ohio.