Mystic Isles,
Through the night,

Where all nature
In the white moon

Smiles,
Light,

It is there, where,
As she sings, wings

Some one is waiting the Seems to be flying a

Whole day long;
Cross the sea;

O'er and o'er,
And it seems,
On the golden shore, By the sea, she
In a mist of dreams, That he heard her

Sings every evening her sweet plaintive song:
Singing and answered her sweet melody:

Refrain

Nightingale, I am so lonely, Nightingale

I love him only; Could he but know, that I

long for him so, He would have come long ago;

Long since our vows we have plighted, Spring time will see us united;

Nightingale do, bring him back here with you,

Back to Hawaii and me.
