IN OLD MADRID.

Words by
JOHN P. HARRINGTON.

Music by HOWARD FLYNN.

Copyright in all Countries 1922, by The St. Giles Publishing Co. Ltd.
Copyright in all Countries 1922, by The St. Giles Publishing Co., Ltd. 27, High St. Oxford St. London. W.C. 2

St. G. P. Co.Ltd. 104.
Whisper of love, on fairy strings, Neath Southern Lips pressing lips, and heart to heart; Neath Southern stars, The Matador to his loved one sings:

skies, The Matador cries, We ne'er will part!

REFRAIN.

"In old Madrid, where skies are blue, In old Madrid, there I met you. Under your old som-

St.G.P.Co. Ltd.104.
Bro, you did look fine,- That’s why I thought I’d like to have you

rit. a tempo

for a girl of mine. The sweet guitar you used to play, That’s how you

rit. a tempo

stole my heart away; And then you taught me to whisper, marc.

‘Carmen I love you! That’s what you did, in old Madrid.’

St. G. P. Co. Ltd. 104.
PATTER VERSE.

See that big bull bounding round the ring, Ra-ging, ra-ging, mad as any-thing

"Vi-va! Vi-va!" hear the peo-ple cheer, When that to-re-a-dor draws near.

Bright eyes flash from bal-co-nies a-bove, On that man of gal-lant-ry and love.

One, two, three, and the deed is done, And that's how the bull-fight's won!

St. G. P. Co. Ltd. 104.
Refrain.