IN OUR PARLOR
On A Sunday Night
Novelty Fox Trot Song

In our house, oh, in our house, we have a lot of fun, From our street the gang all meet just after work is done;
In our house, oh, in our house, where things are never dull, All the time in rain or shine there never is a hull,

Ev'ry-bod-y meets a bod-y You don't need an in-vite, Something doing some-thing brewing Hearts for-ev-er are light,

You can't go wrong just come a-long On any Sunday night To prove it's true why, I'll meet you, On any Sunday night

In our par-lor, in our par-lor, on Sunday night, The gang's all there with slicked up hair The girls are dolled up right. Per-cy says his Gun-ga Din, A-bie plays his vi-o-lin, Sis-ter An-na rags the pian-ner right. Mother hands out lem-on-ade, No one knows from what it's made, Miss La Cos-ta and sweet Os-car, right. Per-cy thought he's Wal-ly Reid, But he couldn't make the speed, Now each queen-o, peach-er-in-o fight. "UPLIFT CLUB is what it's called, How your rep-u-ta-tions mauled, When they stab it and they jab it, in her most a-tri-o-cious man-ner, Then my moth-er sends my broth-er down to the store But he and Red-shoot Gar-gle du-ets from La Tos-ca, Sam-my Howe gets real high brow and starts a spelling game, We all sit round and says he works like Val-en-ti-no. Then my Gran-pa leaves my Grand-ma and joins the crowd I want to say he Each dame has a scan-dal hab-it, Those di-ver-ces, each of course is put on the pan, They give each mys-tercraps in stead And we see him no more When dad said no lunch in sight Gee! there was an aw-ful fight Ma-bel found she couldn't spell her name 'Thought she was empty in the done Fel-lers fight to take her home gets a way with more than we've al-low-ed, such a his-try like no bod-y can, "Up-lift' Club say, that's the bunk. They sell gos-sip just like junk
