A Picture Without A Frame

Words by ANDREW B. STERLING

Music by HARRY VON TILZER

Moderato

Piano

Voice

In my mind — I often paint — a picture dear to me I've seen famous paintings but — there's none that I can find Just like the one I see in my memory paints — for me

whippoorwill is singing in the tree on I'll always keep it in my mind
And

when I paint this picture I can see.
dear old picture that I left behind.

Chorus

A rustic stream
A shady dell

A pasture green
I love so well
