ROSALIE.
Song Fox-Trot.

Words by SCHUYLER GREENE.

Music by HUGO FREY.

In Fox-Trot Time.

1. Dear - est, I'm start - ing out to find you,
2. You nev - er e - ven left an ad - dress,

just to re - mind you That ev - er
I made a bad guess When I thought

Copyright, MCMXXII, by Harms Inc.
since we've been apart,

you would always care.

Nightly, a lonesome sort of feeling for you comes fellow ever had less; I made a stealing around my heart.

sad mess of our affair.
REFRAIN.

Ros - a - lie, oh! Ros - a - lie, no mat - ter where you may be, I'll search un - til your lips ful - fil the prom - ise you gave to me.

27962
When we meet, the sweet things I told— you,

I'll re-peat and tenderly hold— you close-ly to my heart, dear; nev-er more to part, dear, Ros-

-a- lie! -lie!