HAPPY

Music by MARGIE KELLY

Moderato

The skies were mighty

gray, strange,
both night and day,
how things can change,
For me the sun was never shining,
For someone sad and always crying,

But like a song,
The tears have fled,

You came along,
And now instead,

It's not for see the silver lining You made me lone-liness I'm sighing You made me REFRAIN

Happy when I met you,

Glad I can't forget you,

Smiling like the sunshine it seems,

Joy came skipping into my dreams.
Laughing now at trouble

Life is just a bubble Love I hear you calling, Like a "peach" I'm falling, We'll make a happy

"pear" You made me "pear"
