Down in the old rustic lane, When life was one sweet refrain.
When we knew nothing of care, Hearts were as free as the air.

Come let us go. You'll love it so. Kid-dies once again.
Life was complete. Dreams were so sweet. In those days so rare.

Refrain (daintily)

School-time — Sweet-gold-en rule time — When we would hop and skip, and jump, and play to-geth-er in sun-ny weath-er school-time, — old swimming pool time, The teacher's pet we'd get and wallop him then run like sin in school time, old wooden rule time, Those dear old days when down The school time, old wooden rule time, When I'd play hook-ey oh The cellar door we slid Then ma would pick out the splinters oh me! Oh my! She'd things that Dad-dy did He'd take me out in the woodshed right on his knee, And give me a dime so I wouldn't cry in school-time When we were kids Fine what he was do-ing I couldn't see in school-time When we were kids Fine School Time 4.
