Sweet Eileen

Words and Music by CHARLES F PIETSCH

Valse Moderato
Waltz Song

There's a sweet little girl from the Emerald Isle, Her name is She's a regular rogue, you can take it from me, Is my sweet

Eileen O'Hare, Tho' here but a year she can fill up your Eileen O'Hare, She's bright as the light that makes day of the ear with slang that will make you stare, She's a cute little flapper, I'd night, To her care is like the air, Every movie director is like to Kid-nap her, for she breaks a heart ev-ery day, Tho' I call her a breaking his neck to screen sweet lit-tle Ei-leen O'Hare,—You may call her a sin-ner I think she's a win-ner, and she al-ways smiles when I say:

vamp you may call her a scamp, but I love her and that's why I say:

Chorus

Sweet Ei-leen
You're a naugh-ty, naugh-ty col-leen with your rou-guish eyes and your

Sweet Eileen
smiles, You're just like a bright sun beam,

Sweet Eileen, sweetest little girl I've seen.
Dear I'm ever sighing and crying for you.

Sweet Eileen,
