Tell Me With Smiles

By CLIFF FRIEND and WALTER HIRSCH

Moderato

Ev'ry time I look into your eyes of blue
There is something you can do when I feel sad,

I can't understand a thing they say,
You can make the shadows disappear,

Ev'en your sweet lips refuse to Bring the sunshine to my heart and tell me, too,

make me glad;

So before I go,
If you only knew,

I would like to know:
This is what to do:

Copyright MCMXXXIII by Richmond-Robins Inc., 1655 Broadway, N.Y.

International Copyright Secured

The Publisher reserves the right to the use of this Copyrighted work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it Mechanically

All Rights Reserved
REFRAIN

If you're thinking of me, If you really love me Tell Me With

Smiles, Words can not convey it, You don't have to say it, Tell

Me With Smiles Tears mean I'm pleading in vain, Smiles mean you love me again So dear, why do you taunt me, If you really want me

Tell Me With Smiles Tell Me With Smiles