ALLEGRO.

Not too fast.

1. I'se gwine back to Dix-ie,— No more I'se gwine to wander, My heart's turned back to.

2. I've hoed in fields of cotton, I've worked up on the river, I used to think if.

3. I'm trav'ling back to Dix-ie,— My step is slow and fee ble, pray the Lord to.

Dix-ie,— I can't stay here no longer,— I miss de ole plantation, My I got off, I'd go back there, no, nevir. But time has changed the old man, His help me, And lead me from all evil. And should my strength forsake me, Then, kind friends, come and take me, My heart's turned back to Dix-ie, And I must go.

Entered according to Act o' Congress, in the year 1874, by WHITE, SMITH & CO., in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

1.924-6
I'se gwine back to Dix-ie, I'se gwine back to Dix-ie, I'se gwine back to Dix-ie.

I'se gwine where the orange blossoms grow,..... For I hear the children calling, I

I'se gwine back to Dixie. 1.23-3 see their sad tears falling, My heart's turned back to Dix-ie, And I must go.
