IN DREAMLAND FAR AWAY.

SONG.

Words by GEORGE BIRDSEYE. Music by H. P. DANKS.

REFRAIN.

Copyright, 1887, by R. A. SALLFIELD. 1,785—3.
sweet will be our bliss - es, O, rare will be our bliss - es! We'll tell our time by the lover's chime, That strikes the hour with kisses.

sor - row shall en - ter our cas - tile walls, For joy shall guard the door;........ No

In Dreamland far away. 1,776—2.
REFRAIN.

Word shall be spoken that e'er recalls the cares we knew before...

has! that we never may have the pow'r to live them when we wake...

Sweet will be our blisses, O, rare will be our blisses! We'll tell our time by the lover's chime, That strikes the hour with kisses.

In Dreamland, Far Away. 1,376—5.