When the Golden Sun has Sunk into the West.

SEXTETTE.

Moderato.

Words and Music by W. T. FRANCIS.

Copyright MCML by M.Witmark & Sons.
International Copyright Secured.
We should like to understand what it
'Twas by strategy you know, That you

The lion can sometimes from ambush slays his prey And all is

When the golden sun &c. 4534-10
This may all b Put we,
trem-b-le when sweet cu-pid draws his bow fair in love and war the po-ets say do not see the need For your tell-ing us this tale of fear you'd take to flight, But you need-not for ma-ma's awoe! woe! woe! The need of tell-ing us this tale of way way way But now you need-not for ma-ma's a-

When the golden sun &c. 4534-10
Now don't tease if you please And with haughty manner freeze, To in-Arms shall clash swords shall flash, While with mil-i-tar-y dash We to GIRLS.

Pray dis-Pray don't

diff'-rence love we of-fer you to-day vic-to-ry shall win a lover's way miss all of this Ar-gu-ment you want a kiss, Try and choose to a-buse Our pa-pas should they re-fuse To ac-

When the golden sun &c. 4534-10
Were de-scold you're not bold, For-ty times you must be told, Were de-mind you may find Pa-pas some-times are un-kind Know-ing fence-less for our ma-mas are a-way Quite de-what to do when ma-ma is a-way fence-less for our ma-mas are a-way! Yes the what to do when ma-ma is a-way!

For the day

When the golden sun &c. 4534-10
Then we may

Rude comparisons you know Are to

Then ire, may some other day

When the golden sun &c. 4584.10
ENSEMBLE.

Let's forgive and love, let Cupid have his sway. And when the love sometimes a blow

golden sun has sunk into the west, And ev'ry soldiers with the girl he loves the best, Just to

When the golden sun &c. 1534.10 keep her from all harm 'Round her waist he'll place his arm, On his shou-der will her sweet head rest, rest, rest. And on his

1. dim. rall. 2. rall.

shoulder will her sweet head rest. shoulder shall her sweet head rest.

When the golden sun &c. 4534.10