The Leader of the German Band.

March Song.

Words by EDWARD MADDEN.

Music by THEODORE MORSE.

March Tempo.

Ev'ry day by our back door,
First they play "Die Wacht am Rhein,
Next we hear "O Baby Mine"

We have a concert each afternoon,

Copyright 1905 by F. B. Haviland Pub. Co. Inc. 125 W. 37th St. N.Y.
English Copyright Secured. played by a Dutch band all out of tune Some are thin and sweetly the strains of "Hi-lee Hi-lo" "Oh, du lie-ber
-

some are fat each one wears a soldier hat Ready they Au-gus-tine" and the Wear-ing of the Green" Then they will stand a- wait-ing com-mand, from the lead-er of the Ger-man Band.

wind up each af-ter noon with a good old "Yankee Doo-dle" tune.

CHORUS.
“Schmidt” makes such a hit his cor-net so-lo goes so high— "Schmalz"— may have his faults— his trombone pokes in Heiny's eye— "Jake"— is such a fake— he plays the piccolo with one hand— But "Heinz" shines like the "fifty seven kinds' he's the leader of the German Band— Band

The Leader of etc. 3