No Wedding Bells For Me.

Words by
E. P. MORAN & WILL A. HEELAN.

Music by SEYMOUR FURTH.

1. Fair woman first was built ad. lib. on some installment plan; Her
2. My friend said: "Batch come dine with me, my wife's a splendid cook;" When
3. A girl who held an infant-child, was hanging to a strap; I Copyright 1906, by Maurice Shapiro, Broadway & 39th St., New York.

International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.

Entered according to the Act of Parliament of Canada in the year MCMVI by Maurice Shapiro at the Department of Agriculture.
main foundation was the rib of poor unlucky man; Each Miss is Sau er saw me, she, just gave his nibs a look; A had a seat and when she smiled, I took her on my lap, I'm man to get that rib of his must wed some maiden fair, But doz'en kids began to shout while at the table there, The speaking of the baby, not the lady understand, I not for me, although there is a lot of ribs to spare.

baby took some sauerkraut and rubbed it in my hair.
scarcely had her when I got the laugh to beat the band.
CHORUS.

No wedding bells for me, I'm as happy as can be,
No wedding bells for me, I'm as happy as can be,
No wedding bells for me, I'm as happy as can be,

Let the others all pick their ribs, As for me I don't like spare-ribs;
Tempt me not with trial marriage, I'll not push a baby carriage;
Down my spine I felt a shiver, Someone whistled Swanee River;

Gee whiz! I'm glad I'm free; No wedding bells for me.
Gee whiz! I'm glad I'm free; No wedding bells for me.
Gee whiz! I'm glad I'm free; No wedding bells for me.