STROLLING WITH YOUR SUMMER GIRL.

SUMMER WALTZ SONG.

Words & Music by
LEW P. BENDERNAGEL.
(The Famous Tenor.)

Tempo di Valse

When the winter time is over, ..... In the
When the summer day is ending, ..... And the Copyright 1906 by Joyce, Ruby & Bendednagel on the clo-ver, And the world seems all in tune;

soft-ly blend-ing In a blaze of red and gold...

Where birds sing songs of glad-ness, And skies are Then to your heart you press her, While her eyes with bright a-bove; You for-get life's care and love-light shine: And you say, as you ca-

sad-ness With the lit-tle girl you love.
press her, "Sweet-heart, promise to be mine."

"Sweet-heart, promise to be mine."
Chorus

Strolling with your "Summer Girl," One who sets your heart a-whirl, O'er the rustic bridge you go; Telling her you love her so.... Arm in arm, hearts beat as one, When the summer day is done—Forgetting all your Winter toil While strolling with your "Summer Girl."