ALL FOR YOU.

Words by ARTHUR LONGBRAKE.
Music by GEO. A. NICHOLS.

Modto.

Sweet-heart the dew-drops are fall
Nature seems now at its rest,

Copyright MCMVII by Joseph Morris, Philada., Pa.
Birds have long since ceased their calling
And are now safe in their nests,

Take this sweet rose as a token
That I've not spoken in vain,

Moon smiles at us from above,
When there's a heart to be won,

See how the stars bright are gleaming
That story old bears' repeating

Soon about you I'll be dreaming
For you are the girl I love,

Come now the moments are fleeting
Just say our hearts beat as one.

All For You -3.
CHORUS.

My heart beats all for you Ever the whole day through,

Each little second a beat all for you, all for you;

Just as the bird to its mate, my heart is calling too, Ever keeps beating, ever repeating, for you, just you.
