LEE OREAN SMITH.

Tempo di marcia.

I know a little lady in polite society And she is cut-est little girl in town has suitors by the score, She calls them cute as she can be friends and nothing more

When they pop the question and they say will you be mine She just replies

"Some other time" She knows a thing or two

Bluety good fellow win her heart and hand And as she passes by the chap-pies sigh Oh me oh my

And she'll tell you That you won't do you'll hold her head up high Stand aside 'til she passes find that she's true blue She's a jolly good fellow
