Moonbeams and Dreams of You.

Words by HAROLD ATTERIDGE.

Music by S. WALLENSTEIN.

And, Mod. con espressione.

The still-ness of night is a-round
The same moon is look-ing down on me. Its aw-fu-lly lone-some too.    Wonder-ing

you. the same bright stars you see.    I hope you are

Copyright, MCMVII, by Victor Kremer Co. Chicago-New York.
English Copyright. cause some one thinks of having the same dreams
Hope you are longing for you,
The moon or the stars wont give answer when me,
The night makes me feel very lonely with
I tell them I am blue, But they seem to feel that you're dreams of the days gone by, But fond hopes it gives of the missing and they know that I want you.
future fond hopes dear which make me sigh.

V.K. 194 - 3.
REFRAIN Slower.

Moonbeams Moonbeams shining on through the night,

Love dreams Love dreams making the world seem bright,

gleams Star gleams lend their enchantment too,

part of loving is Moonbeams and Dreams of you.