Good Evening, Caroline.

Words by JACK NORWORTH.

Music by ALBERT VON TILZER.

Strolling down the lane one evening, Was Carrie said she'd like to marry, She feeling kind of blue; For I was wondering if my Caroline promised to be true; Then we were stealing kisses in the moonlight, like sweethearts do.

Saw her standing in the garden, She turned her head away.
Soon I heard some body calling, "Young man, its time to roam."
When she made believe she didn't see me there, I never thought I'd have the nerve to say:
line good night, But I was singing all the whole way home:

CHORUS.
Good Evening, Carolina, Never saw you looking finer.

Good Evening, Caroline.

How's your Ma? How's your Pa? But tell me first just how you are, For you, dear, my heart is pin ing,

Say that you'll be mine: Just take your time, make up your mind, Good Evening Caroline.

Good Evening, Caroline.
